ROSE WEEDY

Rose Weedy (she/her) is a multi-threat performing artist originally from Maryland, now calling Knoxville, Tennessee her home.

With over fourteen years experience in the arts, Rose has her metaphorical (and literal!) brush dipped in many pots. During her years as a pre-professional, Rose learned from her grandmother at Elower-Sicilia Productions in Dance, now celebrating over 50 years in dance excellence. She has performed in pieces by Tommy Alexander, Keith Clifton and Mark Goodman. Recently, Rose was hand-selected to receive an artist development scholarship with Isenberg Entertainment and is currently working under the mentorship of Hannah and Alex Isenberg as she moves into the next step of her career in the industry. As a budding choreographer, Rose has had the opportunity to self-choreograph and improv solo pieces that have competed across the east coast and looks forward to exploring her inner creativity further through choreography. Rose is also a trained vocalist, martial artist, actress and visual artist- utilizing her talents through hair and makeup artistry, as well as fabric and crochet work.

Rose continues to foster her experience in all forms of artistry, and is excited to get groovy with future endeavors!
