ISAAC BRADLEY

Isaac Bradley (he/him) is a multi-faceted vocalist and musical theater performer from Charlotte, North Carolina. Finding his passion for the arts at an early age, Isaac took the stage with Creative Drama Children's Theater for eleven show runs, and has been featured in roles like Michael Banks, "Mary Poppins", Prince Eric, "The Little Mermaid" and Billy Flynn, "Chicago". Most recently, he performed as Lumiere in "Beauty and the Beast" with Lexington Youth Theater, earning him accolades for his captivating vocal performances and witty deliveries. Isaac trains with vocal coach, Kayla Petrille, of Self Made Vocal Studio, and has enjoyed working with directors like Karen Stuzman, Angie Hudson and Douglas Brown. Isaac is currently under mentorship of Hannah and Alex Isenberg of Isenberg Entertainment, and joined their "Bridge the Gap" summer program where he was able to explore new dance styles, acting methods and networking for performers.

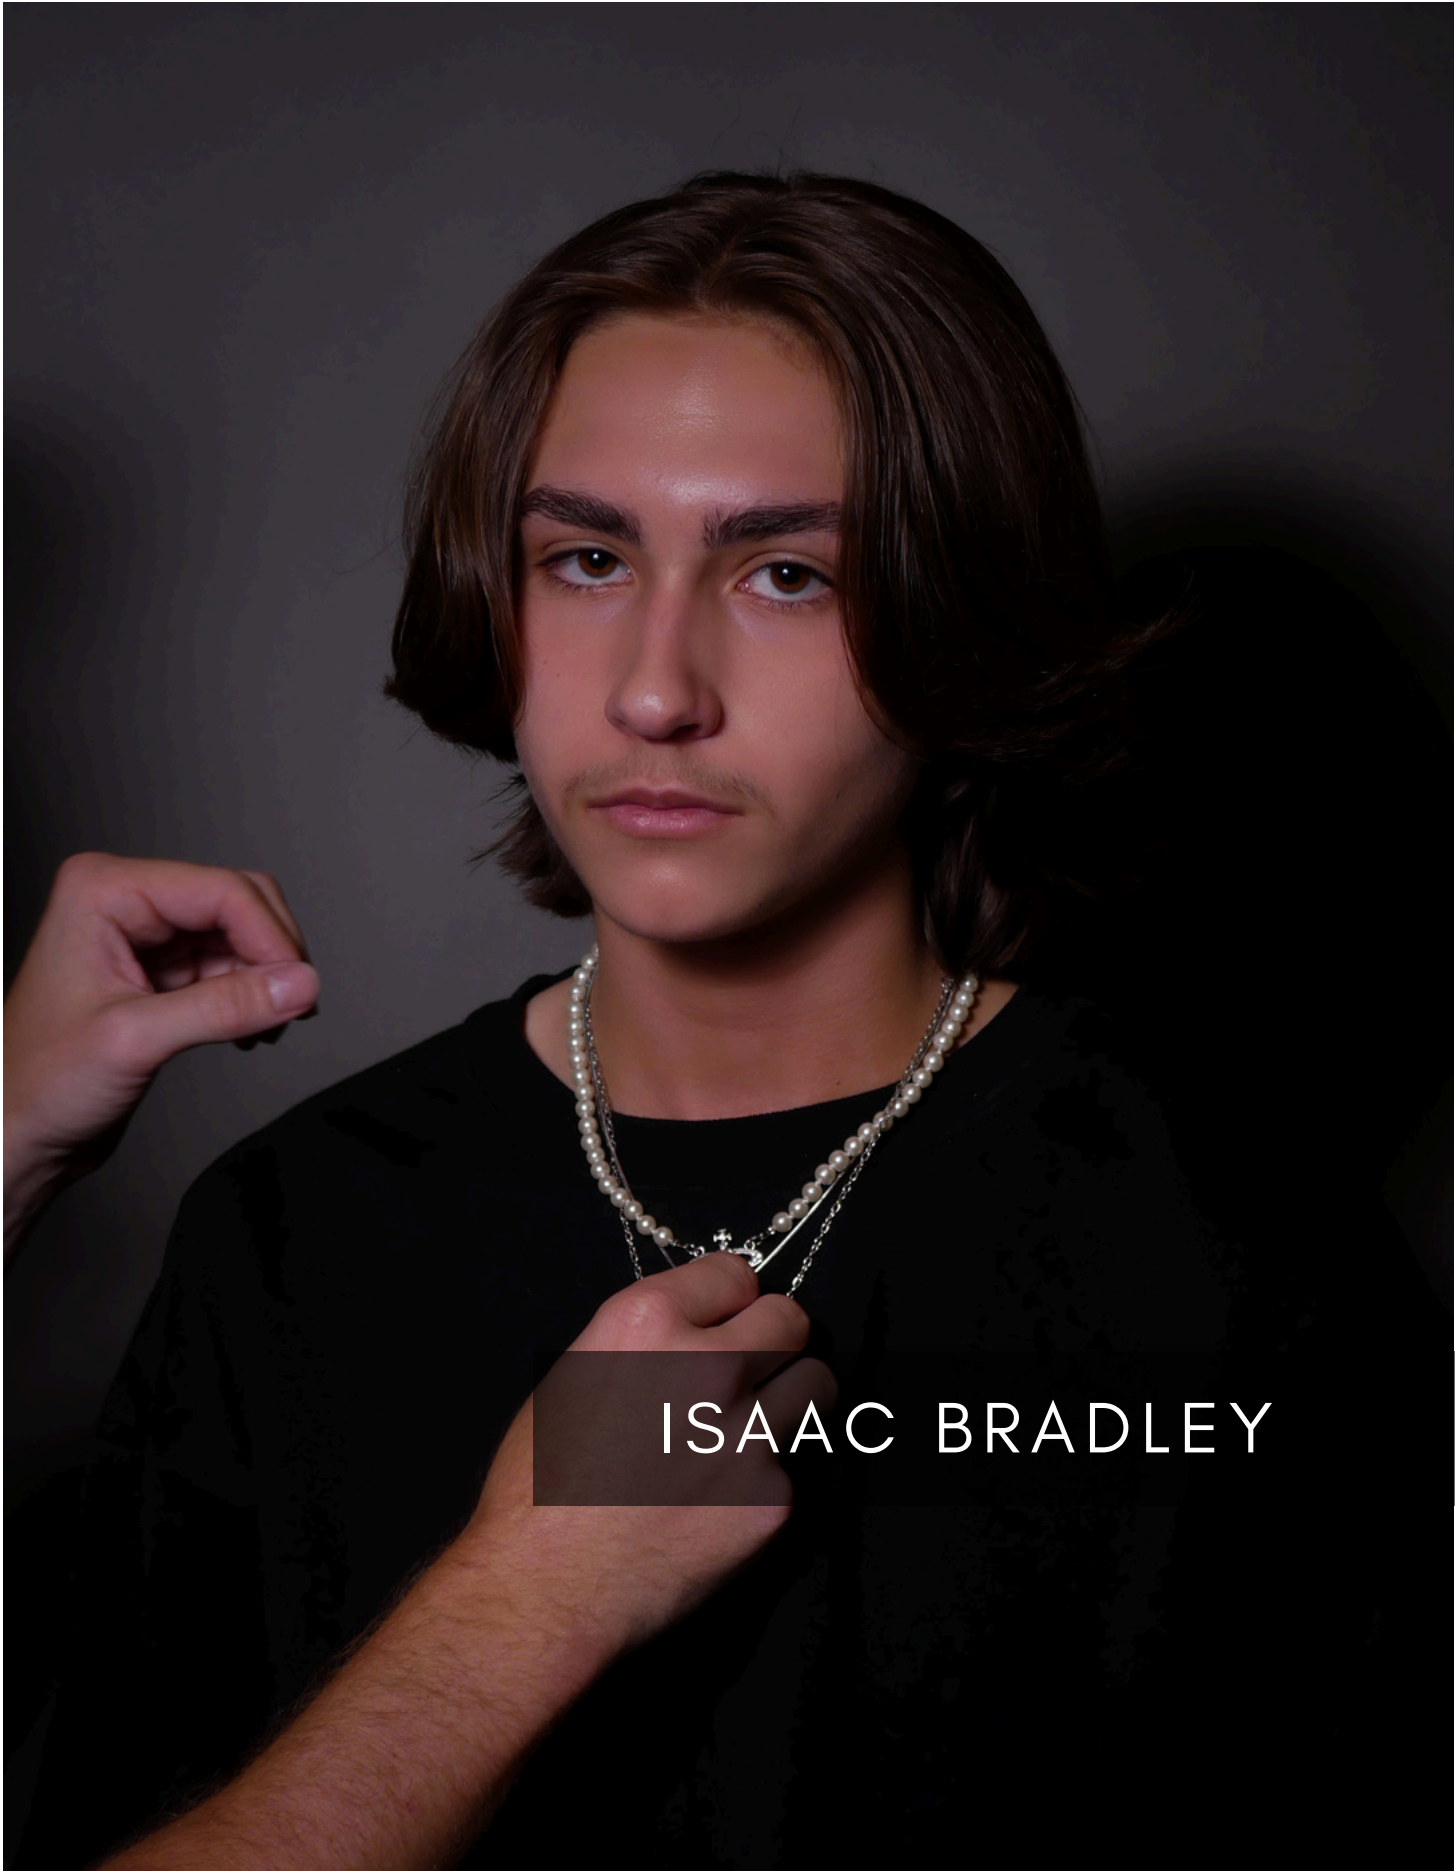

Isaac looks forward to continuing his journey as a performer, and values the emotional connection that live performances bring to an audience. He thanks everyone who has been a part of his experience so far, and looks forward to what the future holds!
