JULLIANA GOULD

Julliana Gould is a multifaceted artist from Toronto, Canada. Training in ballet, jazz, acrobatics, modern, contemporary and hip hop, Julliana brings forth a strong repertoire of knowledge and adaptability to each stage she enters.

Julliana is currently undergoing professional training with the mentorship of Isenberg Entertainment (Hannah Isenberg, Alex Isenberg) and has had the opportunity to work under the direction of Jen Carter, Christina Diguiseppe, Kennedy Elder and more. Julliana has danced with the Toronto Argonauts Football Team and the Harlem Globetrotters Basketball Team during their halftime performances. She continues to learn and takes every opportunity to grow her craft as a young artist, earning her top accolades as “Nuvo Breakout Artist” finalist and “Face of Embrace” scholarship recipient in her recent years.

Julliana will be joining the opening performance cast of the Universal Women’s Network “Women of Inspiration Awards” this fall in Toronto and looks forward to each opportunity that lies ahead.
